The Company has recently acquired working interests of 2 oil and gas production fields having proven reserves of approximately 154 Mbbl oil and 120 MMcf natural gas in Recoverable Net Reserves (PV10 report) in Coleman County, Texas from its operating partner International Western Oil Corporation which has secured several concessions covering approximately 2,400 acres in the Central West Texas region. Outside of the Central West Texas region and within the United States, the Company has accessibility to approximately 95,000 acres of large-reserve oil and gas concessions, currently under management review for acquisition efforts.

In 2016, taking advantage of the recent downturn of the oil and gas industry, the Company is actively looking for large-reserve oil & gas concessions and productions, aiming to participate with international partners for large-scale transactions related to buyouts and joint ventures. Within the United States, IWP has accessibility to concessions of approximately 20,000 acres in Texas and Wyoming, totaling estimated 22 TCF of natural gas (7% of the U.S. domestic natural gas reserves) and 125 million barrels of oil and associated condensate as ultimate recoverable reserves. Outside of the United States, IWP has accessibility to concessions of approximately 1.3 million square kilometers which is equivalent to 420 million gross acres, most of which are offshore, located in the Caribbean Sea, Mediterranean Sea, and offshore on both the East and West Coasts of Africa, offshore Central and South America.
